TRIBUTE TO RACE

Rabbi Simon Glazer Writes About Jews of This Locality.

COMMUNITY IS UNIQUE ONE

Davenport Said to Have Only Titled Jewess in the State of Iowa.

Rock Island people, without regard to their racial or church connection, will be interested in the notable part which the Jews here play in the history of their people, as is told in the book of Rabbi Simon Glazer, of Des Moines, the publication of which has been awaited with interest throughout the Jewish world. Rabbi Glazer gives an entire chapter of the Hebrews and Jewries of Rock Island and Davenport.

One noteworthy fact is that there was not a single Jew since the Davenport Jewry was founded sentenced for any felony and only four Jews were inmates of the Scott county jail during this period of years, extending between 1848 to the present time.

Between the years 1865 and 1893 only three divorce cases appear on the records of Scott county, and during the entire history of Davenport Jews but one case of insanity appears, and not a single Jew or Jewess was ever sent to a county or state asylum from there.

Only Titled Jewess in Iowa. According to the rabbi's book, Davenport has in its midst a niece of the late Baron Berthold Auerbach, the poet. She is the only Jewish lady in Iowa connected with a titled family. She is the wife of I. Rothschild. The book is entitled, "The Jews of Iowa," but the author includes Rock Island. He says:

"Rock Island is a unique little Jewish community. It is a ghetto in the full meaning of the word. All keep Sabbath. Friday evening puts a holy garb over that part of Rock Island where stands the beautiful little school. Through every window of a Jewish habitation lurk the Sabbath candles. Every maiden wears the incidental bluish of her ghetto sisters in the hands of exile. One forgets he is in the rush center of the Trio City when he comes into the little synagogue and beholds young and old gracing the Sabbath in a most orthodox way."

Ancient Judaism Seen. "Here again the European Jew sees the sacredness of ancient Judaism winking into him from every bench from the almoner, through the candlesticks—but behold the tapers of electricity which burst through the chandeliers mark the great change. The community was founded in 1881 by M. Morris, who came from Slabody, Province Suwalk, and when the outbreak in southern Russia left so many of the Jews homeless, quite a number of them came to Rock Island in search of home and bread."

DRAWING THE IRON RING ABOUT THE MAIN BODY OF KUROPATKIN'S ARMY

Koff had previously been twice wounded at the battle of Liaoyang and at the Shakhe river dismounted, kissed the man and pinned the cross on Bar-koff's breast.

Fighting on the right flank is severe. Tuesday the supply of bandages was exhausted and surgeons were so fatigued they were scarcely able to hold their instruments.

May Seize Railroads.

Tientsin, March 9.—The Japanese have requested the transportation of 450 tons of rice to Shinnin. Unless the request is complied with, the Japanese threaten to seize the railroad. It is believed to be a test case. Today the Japanese seized the telegraph office at Shinnin.

Have Caught Many Vessels.

Tokio, March 9.—The British steamer Venus, from Cardiff for Vladivostok, was captured by a Japanese warship March 4, and the British steamer Aphrodite, from Cardiff for Vladivostok, was seized by a warship of Japan March 6. Since the war began Japan has taken possession of 32 steamers carrying contraband of war. These vessels are of a thousand tons and upward, the whole totaling 100,000 tons.

Night Attacks Repulsed.

St. Petersburg, March 9.—The following dispatch from Gen. Sakharoff, Kuropatkin's chief of staff, dated today:

"Several fierce attacks on our north front were made during the night. They were all repulsed. In the other directions the night was quiet."

KUROPATKIN'S PLAN FROM START WAS TO RETREAT TO NORTH

St. Petersburg, March 9, 3 a. m.—The battle of Mukden has resulted in a Russian defeat. Oyama has once more proved himself one of the greatest masters of offensive strategy since Napoleon, while Kuropatkin is now engaged in endeavoring to defend his title as master of successful retreats and bring off his army, with its immense train safely to the pass, where a position was long ago prepared with the contingency in view.

The problem before Kuropatkin is much more difficult than the one he met successfully at Liaoyang, since now he is threatened on both flanks, his left wing being entangled in a mountainous region far from the railroad. Nevertheless, the Russian military men here express a fair degree of confidence in Kuropatkin's ability once more to extricate his army and avoid a Russian Sedan.

Merely Following Out Plan.

From information in possession of the Associated Press it is known that Kuropatkin contemplated retirement before the beginning of the battle, and that he had hoped to accomplish it without serious combat. The Japanese, however, forced him to accept battle. A double turning movement compelled him to send the major part of his reserves to the fighting line and rendered an effective counter stroke out of the question and a decision to retire was immediately taken on March 6 as was stated by the Associated Press that day. The withdrawal was actually begun during the night.

AN IOWA FORGER IS TRACED TO THIS CITY

Rock Island Police Asked to Arrest J. H. Barrett, Wanted at Des Moines.

The police department has a telegram from Des Moines signed by A. J. Miller, presumably cashier of a bank, asking for the arrest of J. H. Barrett, 45 years old, for forgery. The telegram came yesterday and stated that Barrett had taken a sleeper at Des Moines for this city, arriving here Sunday morning. The police have no clue to the man. If he did come here he had abundant time before the receipt of the Des Moines notification to clear his skirts of this locality.

SOCIALIST MAYORAL NOMINEE

Stephen Marshall Says He Will Try To Win Out.

Stephen Marshall, nominated for mayor by the socialist party, is a tailor, and conducts a repair and tailoring shop on Eighteenth street. In speaking of the incident in the city council room Monday evening, when Paul Henneberg and Charles Block engaged in an altercation, Mr. Marshall said that it did not signify that the party was split. He said that Mr. Henneberg had no authority to address the council, and was there merely as a spectator. He approved of Mr. Block's action in removing Mr. Henneberg. He expressed the opinion that Mayor McConochie was aware of the condition, and called on Henneberg for the express purpose of bringing him into ridicule.

Mr. Marshall says he will make a strenuous canvass in the campaign for the office.

BREAK OCCURS IN RAPIDS ICE BRIDGE

River is Open From Island to Iowa Shore—Probably Will Go Out by Sunday.

Rivermen are predicting that the ice will go out before Sunday. There was a break on the rapids just above the Rock Island bridge today. It extends from shore to shore. The water is exposed south to a point opposite the commandant's quarters on Rock Island arsenal. There is a slight gorge on the Iowa shore. The sun and warm wind of the past few days has had a mellowing effect on the ice, and it cannot resist much longer. The ice bridge between the two cities still is solid, but it is expected that it will go to pieces any day now.
